Dear Mister Boreno

I came home today after walking through the streets of Warsaw, still a very impressive sight to me. I had just said good-bye to my Polish teacher and was wishing her a Happy Easter when I noticed a great to-do at the door. Since I cannot understand Polish (or hardly so) I asked my father what it was all about. I found that it was a dictionary of the Polish and English languages which you so kindly sent to me. I wonder how I can possibly thank you enough. I would honor, very much, the opportunity of thanking you personally for your great kindness. The reason that my mother is somewhat ahead of me is because always when there is a word brought up, she can look it up and remember it. So I recall looking all over the town for such a dictionary, but in vain. Your present, I am sure (SURE) shall be very useful to me for a long time to come. I wish you a very happy Easter and great thanks for your kindness.

YOURS SINCERLY

Dear Mr. ...

I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy.
I have been very busy
with my work lately
and have not had time
to write to you as often as I would like. I am still in the same place and hope to stay there
for some time longer.
